AN INNOCENT INTRUDER.

He Engaged Rooms, but Then Found That He Was Not Welcome.

An amusing story is told of the early days of the Margaret Louise home. The home, as is well known, was built by Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard as a woman's hotel, under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian association.

The first day the building was open Miss Altman, the directress, was told that a gentleman had called to look at the rooms. Taking it for granted that he wished to engage board for some woman relative, she sent an attendant to show him the rooms. He expressed himself as much pleased and engaged a suit. At nightfall the following day Miss Altman was informed by the horrified attendant that "a man had come to occupy the rooms" which he claimed to have engaged the preceding day. In the hall her startled eyes recognized the dignified gentleman of the day before, accompanied by a colored valet with a dress suit case in one hand, a portmanteau in the other, and with an expressman with a big trunk bringing up the rear.

Miss Altman advanced and politely requested an explanation. This caused the gentleman to grow very red in the face, while the valet rolled his eyes in disapproval and the expressman waited. The gentleman declared that he had come to take possession of the rooms he had engaged and had been refused the keys.

"Oh, but you cannot occupy the rooms," she exclaimed. "This is a woman's hotel." The valet dropped the portmanteau, the expressman smiled, while beads of cold perspiration beaded the forehead of the bolder brow as he explained, that going by, he had seen the place and, mistaking it for a select hotel, was so much pleased with his inspection that he had persuaded his nephew to come also and that probably the young man would arrive by 8 o'clock. Then, with many apologies, he beat a hasty retreat. That evening Miss Altman received the nephew, who proved to be a dashing young society man, who, when he heard of his uncle's innocent mistake, was greatly amused and laughed heartily. — New York World.

GOTHAM'S ELEVATED ROADS.

Thirty Thousand Pieces a Year Turned Over to the Lost Property Department.

At terminal points on the elevated railroads, South ferry, for example, the guards on the trains go through the cars and pick up anything that may have been left by the passengers and turn it over to the train dispatcher at the station, who delivers it to the superintendent of the lost property department of the Manhattan Railway company, at 39 Greenwich street. There the article is inspected and a record of the finding of it, with a description of the article, is made in a book kept for that purpose; there is a book for each division of the road. Then it is wrapped up, properly tagged or labeled, and held to await its owner. Sometimes the ownership of a package is discovered upon examining it. Then if it is not called for the company notifies the owner of the finding of it. In this way articles are restored to their owners daily.

Umbrellas are the articles most numerous found. Of these there are found from 2,500 to 3,000 a year; they are of all kinds and qualities. The number of umbrellas found increases from year to year about in the same proportion as the increase of travel. Next to umbrellas in the numbers found come satchels, and after them, about in the order named, come hats, shoes, books and the various things that are done up in packages. There are found also watches, diamonds, hardware, music, bottles and in the course of the year many other things in great variety.

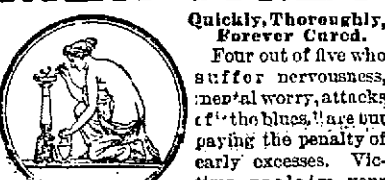

Altogether from the various divisions of the road there are turned over to the lost property department about 30,000 pieces a year. About half of these lost articles are called for. Articles of small value are kept six months; articles of greater value are kept a year. Things not called for are finally sold by public auction at sales held semiannually. — New York Sun.

Self Denial.

Nobody stands on a pillar now, or lives his life upon bread and water, or does his work or eats his dinner clothed in a hair shirt, which, by the way, must, one would think, have gradually become to the habitual wearer at least as bearable as flannel is to skins accustomed to the touch of linen garments. We have to deny ourselves, if at all, in little things, and if we never do it, how is the habit, which is by no means instinctive with the natural man, ever to be generated? That seems sound, and yet it is by no means clear that our grandfathers, who cultivated small self denials, were less selfish than ourselves, and they were decidedly less philanthropic.

Stocks of the stricter orders are very little better, if at all, than English oler-pymen, and men who go periodically into training, which involves much severe self denial, do not emerge from that discipline models either of character or of conduct. — London Spectator.

MEN AND WOMEN to make big money with the Fractional Plating Machine. It is the electrical machine used in the great plating factories; 400 to 800 a week made easy. Plating everything; no experience needed. Address: W. P. Harrison & Co., Clerk No. 11, Columbus, Ohio.

Why is one woman attractive and another not? It isn't entirely a question of age or features or intellect. The most admirable and attractive thing about an attractive woman is her womanliness. Everybody admires a womanly woman. Everybody doesn't realize just what it is that makes her womanly. She must have health, of course, because without it she would lose the brightness of her eyes, the fullness of her cheeks and her vivacity. Health brings all these things, but health means more than most people think of. Real health must mean that a woman is really a woman. That she is strong and perfect in a sexual way, as well as in every other. That she is capable of performing perfectly the duties of maternity. Upon her strength in this way depends to a large extent her general health, her good looks and her attractiveness. Some women are born stronger than others. Some are born with what is called "constitutional weakness." It is easier for some women to retain health and strength than it is for others. Some seem able to do anything they like, whenever they like, without serious results. Still, there is reason why women should not enjoy perfect health. Those who do not, need only take the proper precautions and the proper remedy to become perfectly well and strong. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism. It is absolutely certain. There are some who have neglected themselves so long that a complete cure is next to impossible, but even these will find comfort and improved health in the use of the "Favorite Prescription." It has cured hundreds of women who have received no relief whatever from years of treatment with good physicians. It is absolutely unique in the history of medicine. Such a remedy can be discovered only once. There is nothing in the world like it, nor has there ever been. Hundreds of things that every woman ought to know, are contained in Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, which will be sent absolutely free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. ANOTHER CONVERT TO THE TRUTH

The Salt Lake Tribune, published in the heart of a great silver producing region, has, perhaps, done more by its double-dealing policy to injure the silver cause than any dozen of the outspoken, gold-standard organs in the United States. It furnished the gold press of Utah, Nevada and Idaho with editorials based on the fallacious reasoning that the way to remonetize silver is to stay with the old parties, which are opposed to free coinage. Now the Tribune has been forced by public sentiment in the new State of Utah to abandon its straddling course and take a decisive stand for silver. In a recent issue it announced its change of heart in the following words:

The Republicans of the West have always stood by the Republicans of the East, and it this year they should draw away, it would be on the sole consideration that protection will not save this country or restore its prosperity.

When the McKinley law was the rule, even then the Government began to run behind. If Mr. Harrison's term had lasted six months longer, his administration would have been forced to do what the present one has done: borrow money to pay current expenses. We do not know what hope any Republican in the East can cherish, after that showing, that any restoration of the old tariff, or any new tariff that can be devised, can give prosperity to the country, because there is less money among the people than there was when Mr. Harrison went out of office; there has been a great fall in property since then; the burden of debt has become just as much greater, and the capacity of men to pay their debts has been reduced. Hence a temporary experiment of a new tariff would simply end in disaster and disgrace.

The two old parties have had full swing for three and twenty years, and they have reduced this country to a point where we are the pity of Old Mexico.

The farmers of the East are not making a cent; the manufacturers of the East are not holding their own; the idle men of the country are crowded by millions; our debt abroad is something tremendous now, and we have nothing to pay it except food products and textile products, which we are sending upon Europe at half price.

So far not one of the Nevada papers, which have heretofore relied on the Tribune for "arguments" to decide well-meaning Republicans, who believe in free silver, into the belief that the only way to secure it is to support a party that is against it, has published the above from the Tribune, and in that paper sticks to facts and tells the truth as it does in the article quoted the gold press of the State will have to draw its inspiration from the San Francisco papers, the New York Tribune or some other gold source.

There is not an intelligent person in the State who does not know that a change in tariff schedules of about 13 per cent—the difference between the McKinley and the Wilson bills—could not have caused the general depression and the depreciation in the value of everything, except gold, that now exists, and it is gratifying to see the Tribune, even at this late day, acknowledge the fact. Now let us hope that those who have heretofore used the logic of the Tribune to bolster up their position, will see the error of their ways and candidly admit the fact that the gold standard, more than all other things combined, is impoverishing hundreds of thousands and dragging this country, which should be the most prosperous on the globe, down to the level of European nations.

WAS IN THE MCKINLEY CAMP.

The Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch, a Foraker paper, has declared war against McKinley. It declares that he is not entitled to the Republican nomination. As Governor of Ohio he was a miserable failure, totally deficient in executive ability. There is nothing to commend him except that by the accident of being a member of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives his name became attached to a tariff bill. He was a free coinage man when he first entered Congress, and left the House an avowed goldbug. Governor Banshell, Senator Foraker and other Republican leaders in Ohio are opposed to him and the wholesale removal of his friends from appointive positions under the State Government is in progress. The Foraker men are determined to smash the machine which McKinley built and which has been run in his interest.

Washington dispatches say the press reports have been worked in the interest of McKinley, graced, as it were, with the fatfried out of the manufacturers. Reports have been sent out of conventions declaring for McKinley, where even primaries were not held. These are twenty delegates yet to be elected in Ohio and leaving out those, McKinley has 150 and the opposition 210 of the uncontested delegates.

Governor Drake, who has been East at the launching of the battleship Iowa, says there is no chance for McKinley. He will not be nominated on the first ballot and after a vote or two his forces will break up and leave him. The opposition outnumbered the McKinley men and when that opposition unites McKinley will not be its choice for President.

The Ogden Standard says: Speaker Reed, through his chief lieutenant Dingley, has refused to appoint a time for the consideration of the appropriations asked for public buildings in the west. This means the defeat of the Salt Lake public building appropriation.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

A Dig at the Silver Republicans.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Consideration of the Sundry Civil bill was resumed. During the consideration of the items under the head of coast and geodetic survey, Cannon took occasion to sharply criticize the Administration for "freezing out" Professor Mendenhall, the predecessor of General Duffield, the present Superintendent. He described Mendenhall as the most competent man who ever presided as Superintendent, his scientific attainments being recognized all over the country. He referred to the present Superintendent as "a new discovery," but said he did not desire to reflect in any way on his competency or ability.

Adams took advantage of the latitude allowed in the debate on the Appropriation bill to accuse the silver Republicans of the West by bringing up the question of current reports about a Washington conference between several silver Republicans and some Philadelphia manufacturers, which was the subject of a formal meeting of manufacturers of that city last night. He referred to the "misleading reports" in the papers of an alleged compact between silver Republicans and the manufacturers, by which he said it was even proposed to yield the great doctrine of protection.

SUFFERING IN ALASKA

The Country Overrun With Unemployed Men.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., March 31.—Steamers from Sitka and Juneau report that the country is overrun with unemployed men without means. Much suffering from cold and hunger prevails about the mining camps. Petty thieving goes on day and night. People are considering a plan of chartering a boat and shipping the indigents out of the country. By the middle of June there will be 10,000 miners in the Yukon and Kooka Inlet District.

A Murderous Scheme

MACON, Ga., March 31.—W. Griswell has made a confession in having removed the rail that caused the wrecking of the two trains on the Southern railway on the night of February 29th. Three people were killed and fifteen seriously injured in the accident. Griswell says he removed the spikes from the rail under the direction of Tom Shaw, who held him covered with a shotgun. Shaw has been arrested, but he denies the charge made by Griswell. The wives of both men were on the train, and both were injured. The detectives say that they have positive proof that the men entered into the plot to get rid of their wives, and at the same time collect damages from the railroad company. Shaw effected a compromise for the injuries sustained by his wife, receiving, it is said, $500 from the railroad company.

Snow in Colorado.

DENVER, March 31.—Over six inches of snow fell throughout the greater part of Colorado last night. The storm continues to-day with increasing severity.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

The Cutler Silk Manufacturing Company of Allentown, Pa., have assigned. The liabilities are about half a million.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, Dr. Dewey and Colonel Becker were royally entertained by the citizens of Fresno yesterday.

The Sultan of Turkey has assured the Powers that the missionaries in Armenia will be protected in distributing relief if Turkish officials are permitted to assist them.

Mrs. Olga Deusse and her three children were found asphyxiated in their room in San Francisco yesterday morning. Mrs. Deusse left a note to her husband indicating her intention to commit suicide. They had not been happy in their domestic relations.

Secretary Morton has contracted for over 10,000,000 packages of seed, to be distributed under the recent Act. D. Lindreth & Sons of Philadelphia were awarded the contract for $70,000. L. L. Hay & Co. of St. Paul were awarded the contract for 1,000,000 packages of flower seeds at half a cent a package.

Senator Chandler presided at the New Hampshire Republican Convention yesterday, and when he mentioned the name of Thomas E. Reed as the choice of the party for President the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The convention declared for a circulating medium of gold, silver and paper, which will always be interchangeable.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has brought suit in the United States Circuit Court at Denver against the Western railroads to compel them to desist from discriminating between long and short hauls. An order is asked to restrain the Southern Pacific and the other roads, and Judge Hallett is asked to impose a penalty not exceeding $500 a day on each company as long as the order is disregarded. The defendant companies were ordered to file answers before May 4th.

Five Cuban patriots were garroted at Havana yesterday. Troops were drawn up in a hollow square, into which the condemned men were taken. A chair was placed in the center, in which the first of the victims was seated and slowly strangled to death, while he gave vent to the most distressing cries. The execution of the second man was, if possible, more bunglingly performed than the first, and the priest in attendance on the doomed men begged that the chief executioner dispatch the third man, but he did little better than his assistant.

A STARVED MIND.

Why a Girl Shook Her Head When Dickens Was Mentioned.

It is a fact that the children who have had in abundance the old nursery tales, who have worn out numerous copies of "Mother Goose," to whom Christmas and birthdays mean new books, of rhyme and story, being led thence by gradual steps to the uplands of history, poetry and romance, seldom go down before the malignancy of the "blood and thunder" so freely offered them. It is the starved childhood that seizes and feeds upon these.

A girl of 12 years old had occasion to call at the home of a lady who had befriended her. Scattered about the floor of the sitting room were the books of a small nephew, among them a copy of "Little Red Riding Hood." Her life, barren and hard, had known nothing of literature save her few schoolbooks. She picked up the volume and was soon absorbed in the story. When the lady came in, she extended it to her, saying eagerly, "Is it true?"

It was her first step in the realm of enchantment, but it came too late. She had experienced the real. It was hard, bitter. The same girl a few years later awaited her turn at the library, and begged the attendant to choose for her. The lady hesitated, then extending a volume by Dickens said, "Will you have this?" She shook her head, saying: "I tried to read one of his once. He writes of rags and poverty and hard times. Give me something livelier, please."—Lippincott's Magazine.

The Wind Engine.

There seems to be no question as to the practical utility of the new thought crude wind engine which is now coming into use in some parts of the west. According to the description, it resembles the paddle wheel of a stern wheel boat, with a shaft 12 to 14 feet long, 12 to 16 feet across, with six or eight arms. The lower half of the wheel is shielded from the wind, so that the air acts only upon the upper vanes. A crank upon one end of the shaft connects with the pump. Power can be indefinitely increased at any time by simply increasing the length. The wind acts upon this sort of paddle wheel from all points of the compass except two, and it is said to require no governor, but simply pumps more during a storm. No labor is provided for, and it is placed so that the radial arms will be clear of the ground. One of these wheels now standing in Kansas is said to be 21 feet in diameter, 17 feet long, and make 14 revolutions a minute. It is said to be an excellent water pump, and can be used for all sorts of work. It is said to be a good deal better than the old windmill, and gives 200 gallons of water a minute.

MARRIED.

JOHNSON—JONES—At Austin, Tex., March 28, 1896, by Rev. M. G. Hamm, B. W. Johnson, M. D., to Miss Addie J. Jones, both of Austin.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

THE FUNDING BILL GOES.

President Huntington Gets the Committee to Agree to His Scheme.

The joint sub-committee on Pacific Railroads has drafted a bill which will be submitted to the full committee to fund the indebtedness of the subsidized railroads. The bill is divided into two parts, one relating to the Union Pacific and the other to the Central Pacific. That relating to the Central Pacific requires the Treasury Department to determine their indebtedness as it will stand on the first day of 1897. Precise directions for this are made at length. The companies must deliver to the Secretary of the Treasury a mortgage to bear date of January 1, 1897, for the full amount of indebtedness and covering the entire property of said companies of any and all description, real, personal or mixed, or in securities and all beneficial interests which it may have in the lease of its property to the Southern Pacific Company.

The Central Pacific Company is to issue bonds in an amount equal to the full indebtedness of the roads. These bonds shall be of $1,000 each, to bear interest at 2 per cent per annum payable semi-annually, beginning with the 1st of July, 1897, and continuing with the life of the bond. The bonds shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Treasury as provisional payment of the indebtedness. The corporate character of the Central Pacific Company shall continue until the bonds shall have been fully paid.

The Central Pacific Company shall on the 1st of January of each year for a period of ten years, commencing January 1, 1898, pay into the treasury in addition to the interest then due on its indebtedness, the sum of $300,000 per annum, and for a period of ten years following it shall pay in addition to the interest $500,000 per annum, and thereafter, in like manner, commencing January 1, 1898, it shall pay annually $750,000, until the whole amount of the bonds shall have been paid.

These payments shall be applied to the redemption of bonds of the Central Pacific in the order of the numbers of such bonds, beginning with the highest unpaid number, and no other bonds under said mortgage shall be issued by the company in lieu thereof.

The statutory lien now existing under the Acts of Congress approved July, 1862, July 2, 1864, and May 7, 1878, is to stay in force for the security of the Government debts until all liens on the property affected by the company's mortgage shall have been paid and discharged. Whenever the President of the United States shall deem it necessary for the preservation of the security of the United States in respect to its mortgage or other interest in any of the company's property named in this Act, upon which paramount title is held by the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury may be authorized by him to redeem any such paramount title or other encumbrance by paying the sum due thereon out of the Treasury, and the United States shall thereupon be subrogated to all rights pertaining to the debts of the title when such payment shall have been made.

It is provided that in such case of payment by the United States repayment may be required from the company of all money paid for such purpose, with costs; and if the company fails to make such repayments within one year after notification the entire indebtedness of said company may become due and payable, and all the Government's rights thereon shall be enforced.

The Central Pacific Company is allowed, without injury to the present lien thereof, to extend the payment of, or refund, by issuing new bonds secured by mortgage, any of its indebtedness authorized by section 10 of the act of July 2, 1864, as amended by the act of March 3, 1865, at a lower rate of interest than it now bears, not to exceed 5 per cent, payable semi-annually.

The Central Pacific is required to change the terms of the lease of its road to the Southern Pacific Company. The latter company must guarantee the payment by the Central Pacific Company during the continuation of such lease of the interest and installments on the principal of the bonds provided for in this act. The modified lease shall be worded, that should the Southern Pacific Company agree to terminate it before the payment of the debt it shall guarantee that the Central Pacific Company pays such interest and installments while any of such bonds remain unpaid.

As long as the bonds are owned by the Government any of the railroad companies may redeem the whole of them. The United States will sell any of the bonds at any time for not less than their face value and accrued interest.

When this act is accepted the Government directors are wiped out and all the laws relating to the collection of any percentage of the net earnings or to the withholding or application of any sums due to the Government other than provided for in the bill shall end. The railroad companies must transmit dispatches over their telegraph lines, and mails, troops, munitions, public supplies and stores whenever called upon, allowing the preference to the Government at all times, and the Government shall pay a reasonable price, not greater than what would be charged private parties.

A report was in circulation yesterday that two tramps fell from a freight train night before last just west of the State line, and one was killed outright and the other injured, but nothing reliable could be ascertained regarding the matter.

STATE CAPITAL NOTES.

United States District Court.—The Jones Case Set for April 20th.—The Arraignment of Tremor Coffin.—The "Buttermilk Jake" Side Show.—Another Conviction.

(Correspondence of the JOURNAL.)

CARSON CITY, March 31, 1896.

The case of Tremor Coffin this morning was set for consideration or pleading at 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow. He filed his bond of $5,000 yesterday, with Jacob Klein and Dr. S. L. Lee as sureties.

A jury trial took place in the case of Ah Jim for giving whisky to Indians on the Walker River Reservation. Two Pinto squaws residing at the reservation testified that they visited Ah Jim's house and that he socially treated them each to a drink of whisky, asking and receiving no money therefor. They never drank any of that inspiring beverage before and it didn't make them drunk then. Their names are Renie Greeley and Rose Quartz, long time residents of the reservation. Anyhow, Ah Jim got the worst of it for his hospitality, the jury finding him guilty in twenty minutes and he will be sentenced to-morrow.

At 1 P. M. the case of John T. Jones came up for setting. The prosecution was ready for any time, but Attorney Woodburn, who has now full command of the case, Coffin being under indictment, asked for further time, as he has to attend as counsel in the Vaughn murder case at Reno. After due discussion the Jones case was finally set for April 20th.

BUTTERMILK JAKE.

The afternoon session was badly consumed in the second consideration of the case of W. N. McNamara, vulgarly known as the Comstock as "Buttermilk Jake," charged with selling whisky to Indians. The jury in the recent trial of this same case failed to agree. Two panels, or twenty-four of the present venire of trial jurors were exhausted, not one being accepted and notwithstanding that Marshal Humphrey offered to pick up a jury in ten minutes on the street, His Honor decided to call an open venire of twenty talemen, returnable at 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow, until which time all jurors were excused.

Under the new law of Congress relative to this selling whisky to Indians business, which takes effect on the 1st of July next, all United States officials will be required to do their sworn duty in the matter, without extra pay, outside of their regular liberal salaries. It has been heretofore a very desirable and lucrative source of revenue in the way of fees for detection, arrest, mileage, court attendance and all that sort of thing, and the present cases being disposed of in the U. S. District Court are probably about the last under the fee system. The disreputable putting up of jobs to catch culprits in disposing of whisky to Indians may not hereafter prevail unless found to be specially necessary. Anyhow it will be interesting to watch and see if the officials do their duty as vigilantly and effectively under the new salaries rule as they have done heretofore under the lucrative-fee system.

Quite a number of sheriffs, deputies, constables and witnesses from out along the railroad as far as Carlin have been in town during this Indian Whisky Court session, but about all have returned home. All seemed to enjoy Carson hospitality.

Archibald Allen, the convicting witness in the recent Piper case seems to be troubled about his testimony, and cards himself in some of the local Virginia and Carson newspapers trying to explain more satisfactorily to the public. He cares more about it evidently than anybody else does, and should let the matter drop and go out of sight and mind entirely, if he can.

The reserved seats for "Von Daak" are going very rapidly and the outlook is for "standing room only." Those who desire to attend should lose no time in securing seats. It is very gratifying to the Dramatic Club to know that its efforts are so greatly appreciated, and that the people of Reno are willing to support this enterprise. Watch for This Opportunity.

S. Jacobs, the popular clothier, has reserved a space in the JOURNAL, in which he will announce the greatest assortment of men's and boys' clothing ever brought to Reno. His prices will be placed at the lowest living figure, and he proposes to give Renoites an opportunity to dress up never before offered in the town.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Items From Here, There and Every-where.

A severe snowstorm prevailed recently at Silver City, Idaho. Five feet of snow fell in five days.

The Silver State says the annual consignment of Basques arrived yesterday. There are 8 of them in this lot, ranging in age from 10 to 25 years.

Hon. John Wannamaker, ex-Postmaster General, has been fined in the sum of $1,000 for the importation of contract labor in violation of the alien labor law.

The Central Pacific railroad company has six new postal cars on the way from the East, which will arrive in about a week. They were built at Dayton, Ohio. The arrangement is new.

The Silver State says the wool market is dull with no buyers. This is due to "restored confidence" caused by the recent Republican victory at the polls, and the still more recent popular loan.

Fine Beef Cattle.

The 700 head of cattle sold to the Western Meat Company by L. Gerlach and fed on the Truckee Meadows is said to be the finest lot of cattle ever shipped out of the State. Stock men say that no finer Christmas beef was ever sent to San Francisco. Mr. Gerlach has great confidence in the results that can be obtained in producing fine beef cattle in the Truckee Valley and never fails during the shipping season to make a practical demonstration of what can be done. He is one of the best of patrons for the farmer, and shows by his methods that he knows what to buy and where to get it.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial box will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance, and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels, greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson, Druggist.

Lots of Talk.

About Parks' Cough Syrup is what we desire. Everyone who tries this remedy says that it has no equal in the cure of all diseases of the throat and lungs. We know it will cure any cold and do it in the shortest possible time. You don't know this, but you will agree with us if you only try one bottle of Parks' Cough Syrup. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

Viavi.

Viavi is more of a food than a medicine. I should be glad to have those who do not understand its use, call and get a Health Book free and read the home testimonials. Viavi sales in 1895 exceeded those in 1894 by half a million dollars. Mrs. B. E. HUNTER, Fourth Street.

The body found in a box which had been shipped from Salt Lake and had been stored for three years in Chicago and then sold for freight charges, has been identified as that of J. P. Chazel, who was murdered in Salt Lake City. The body was in a remarkable state of preservation.

There is quite a war between the agents of San Francisco dairies in town and a house to house canvass is being made, but it is an uphill business to stir up much enthusiasm over a newspaper war.

The Armenians.
F. Marion Crawford, the novelist, who has met many Armenians in the east, says of them: "I doubt whether they are the most confident, most infensive Christians that the American people believe them to be. My experience with them is that they are the sharpest, shrewdest and trickiest of all the eastern people. They say in Turkey that it takes ten Jews to equal one Armenian and five Armenians to equal one Persian in sharp business dealings.
They have many able men among them,
and I doubt not that their leaders have to a certain extent fomented this trouble, hoping that the governments of Europe would interfere and that Armenia would be entirely freed from Turkish rule."
In regard to the Turks he says: "I would rather trade with a Turk or a Jew in any part of the east than with a Christian. I have the highest respect for Christianity, but the Christians of the east are not like us. The business men among them are to a large extent a set of sharpers, so much so that the world's oriental Christian in the minds of eastern travelers is almost synonymous with that of thief. The Turks are, as a rule, very devout. Nearly all of them read the Koran, and even the men of the lower classes are careful to conform to the details of everyday Mohammedan worship."—New York Tribune.

Sulphur.
A curious chemical result of experiments made by Strindberg, as noted in Annals Industriels, is that sulphur is not only not a simple body, but not even an original one, being simply a common fossil resin or bitumen. He finds that when sulphur is melted at about 200 degrees, it disengages an odor of turpentine or camphor, and if a trace of iodine be added the odor becomes more marked. If it be heated anew to between 160 degrees and 230 degrees, it loses oxygen and drops to the level of caoutchouc, of which latter it assumes the color and consistency;
then, if the brown and viscous liquid which is obtained in this manner be cooled, it preserves its nature for a certain length of time, and then resumes its state of resin.

Man's Venetian Man.
A wealthy resident of York county lost his wife a few weeks ago. Her illness was prolonged and no doubt expensive. But that was the poor woman's misfortune, not her fault. However, her family had and cheered the final weeks of her life by regularly sitting down by her bed each day and detailing how much her sickness was costing her. Striking a fatal balance for the coming wife's benefit every day. At last, the wife—the doctor, who knew of the husband's singular methods of cheering her up, said there was no doubt about it—and while she lay in her coffin the bereaved spouse, deep in thought, picked up one of the dead woman's letters and fully agreed to renew his old habit of talking the sum total of what he had said had cost him. This statement of facts is solemnly made by the Lancaster Commercial, which condemns the woman on being dead.
How about the man—could he be any different?—Lancaster Journal.

They Are Sure to Laugh When Deprived of Their Dish of Meat.
It has been proved time and again that the so-called "carnibal plants," of which the Venus fly trap is the type,
are much more healthy when allowed their regular insect food than when they are reared under netting or in any other manner which excludes them from their regular food. The above is an exhibit of the fact, especially when we consider the fact that there is a certain school of botanists which teaches that carnibal plants make no use whatever of the insect prey captured by them, but it is nothing compared with the bold assertion made by Francis Darwin.
That noted scientific gentleman bravely meets the "vegetarian botanist" with the assertion that all kinds and classes of plants, whether known as "meaters"
or not, bear more and heavier fruits and seeds when fed on meat than those that are not allowed a flesh diet. He grew two lots, comprising various varieties of the different common plants.
One lot was regularly fed, through their roots of course, with pure juices compressed from meat, the other with water and the various fertilizers. The final figures on this experiment proved that the plants which were fed pure meat juice bore 168 fruits of the different kinds, while the unfed plants of the same number and original condition bore but 74; also, that the pampered plants bore 240 seeds to every 100 borne by the plants that were not given a chance to gratify carnibalistic taste.
This is certainly a discovery worthy of much careful study and extensive experiment.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
